

ABOUT

We have spent a lifetime raising, training, and developing show horses. From homebreds, to ex-racehorses, to imports, our passion is being involved in the process of watching horses develop.

We came up with the idea of holding these clinics to be the eye on the ground or a fresh point of view in the saddle to help people dealing with their green horses.

Horses must be at least green broke for the purpose of this clinic.

We will provide a mix of lessons, demonstrations, and professional rides if needed.

As always, we appreciate you entrusting your young horses to our care and program! Should interest in these programs grow, we will consider adding more sessions in the fall!
